

Y. M. C. A. BUREAU OF EMPLOYMENT

YOUNG MEN AND EMPLOYERS ARE GIVEN SERVICE GRATIS.

Fall and Winter Season Expected to Keep This Feature of the Association
Busy, and Preparations
Are Made for Work.

Memphis.—A meeting of the employment committee of the Y. M. C. A., of which Jeff B. Martin is chairman, was held at the association building to consider the work of the department.

This department has been moved to a corner on the main floor of the lobby and is brought more prominently to the attention of the members and visitors. The secretary in charge of the department is at his desk from 8 a. m. to 9 a. m., 1 p. m. to 2 p. m. and 6 to 7 p. m., when applicants for positions and employers desiring to secure young men may consult with him.

The services of the department are free to members and non-members alike. Each applicant for a place is given personal attention, his references examined and all information possible secured about him, so that when a possible employer appears he will have full data.

In the past twenty days of the new location of the bureau more than a score of men have been placed in suitable positions. Business men are reminded that the Y. M. C. A. is the place to go for clean cut young fellows for office and clerical work and for technically trained men as well. A civil engineer applied for work last week and was given employment within 15 minutes after he registered.

There is no charge made employer or employee for the service, the association feeling it a duty it owes the community, even though there is some expense entailed in the operation of the bureau. It is such work that the professional association workers style real association work.

DISTURBED COUPLE'S WORK.

Husband and Wife Are Found Making Wildcat Whiskey.

Nashville.—During a raid on an illicit distillery in Cumberland county, Special Employee W. H. Tyler of the internal revenue raiding force found a 17-year-old girl on guard and helping her youthful husband, Tom Webb, in his work of making moonshine whiskey. The officers watched the operations for some time before the raid. After the capture of the outfit, which was destroyed, the officers took the captured moonshiner and his wife to Cookeville, where they were arraigned before United States Commissioner Barnes. They were bound over to the full term of the federal court at Cookeville.

TWO BANKS FOR RIPLEY.

Ripley.—Ripley is soon to have two national banks, if the charters are granted by the government, and the promoters of both institutions have been assured that application for charter has been recommended by William T. Marfield, national bank examiner, who was sent here by the comptroller of the currency to look into the situation and make a thorough investigation of the town and country and the financial standing of those who are promoting the bank.

Court of Appeals Decisions.

Knoxville.—The court of civil appeals met here to close up the work of the term, which was adjourned some weeks ago on account of the intense heat.

Scientific Farm Methods.

Hennings.—Since several farmers around here, who are experimenting in scientific farming, under the advice and suggestions of a government demonstrator, have shown the other farmers the results of the scientific methods by the difference in the size of the plant and the number of bolls, much interest has been shown.

Election Boards Agree.

Nashville.—The two election boards of Davidson county met and agreed to jointly hold the city election.

Refund Notes Sold.

Nashville.—The state funding board has negotiated the sale of October short-term refunding notes. The deal was closed by wire. The price was 99-1/2 which is considered an excellent sale, considering the state of the financial market.

Peach Trees Bear Twice.

Trezevant.—The second crop of peaches on trees in the orchard of Sam M. O'Neill, a rural route carrier of this place, is a very uncommon occurrence.

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONVENES ON SEPTEMBER 8.

Bars Down For Bills—150 Local Bills
and Fifty of a General Nature.
Liquor Bills Will Face
Big Fight.

Nashville.—The general assembly will meet in extra session Monday, Sept. 8, at 2 p. m., Gov. Hooper having issued his call.

The call includes some 150 local bills and upward of fifty general bills, breaking all records for the mass of legislation to be considered by a special session. In fact, the bars have practically been let down on the scope of legislation except that matters of a nature to bring on a bitter fight have in the main been omitted.

Among the general bills included in the call are: Appropriation bills, six measures to bring about enforcement of the prohibition laws, anti-pass bill, to provide state laboratory, to amend the assessment law by reducing the grounds of back assessment, and four general enabling bills, empowering towns to adopt commission government, use abutting property, issue municipal improvement bonds, and counties to issue road bonds without individual legislative authority, and a bill to authorize each county to have an attorney to appear in ex parte divorce cases.

The governor sidestepped the assessment bill, not including it in the call, but he suggested certain amendments to the back tax and assessment laws. He also left out the Memphis crossing bills and the Chattanooga Broad street extension bill. In fact, he omitted all legislation that would in any way affect the railroads.

The large number of measures included in the call indicates that so much time will be spent upon them that the law enforcement bills will have hard sledding.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Rushed from Smyrna to Nashville Jail.

Nashville.—William F. Cook was arrested at Smyrna, Tenn., on a warrant sworn out by Sheriff Rhodes of Rutherford county, charged with the murder of his wife and her niece, Lucy Stanford, aged 15 years. The crime was committed last Monday night at the Cook home, three miles from Smyrna. Cook, for fear of mob violence, was hurried to Nashville and lodged in the Davidson county jail for safe keeping. The arrest followed four days of vigilance search by Sheriff Rhodes and his deputies and other officers, as well as residents of the neighborhood, for the weapon with which the deed was committed. A hickory bludgeon, smeared with blood, was discovered in the Cook stable, and the arrest followed immediately.

SEVERAL HORSES BURNED.

Animals Die in Stables at Union City.
Origin of Fire Unknown.

Union City.—The stables of the Wortham country residence of Mr. and Mrs. Will Waterfield of the town were burned at 4:30 o'clock in the morning. The origin of the fire is unknown. Everything in the stable, including three fine horses and several mules, other stock besides feedstuff, was burned. It was partly covered by insurance. The loss is heavy.

REFUSES FREEDOM.

Cashier Would Not Leave With Others in Jail Delivery.

Bristol.—M. F. Wheatley, alleged embezzling cashier of the Bank of Limestone, Tenn., refused to leave the county jail at Jonesboro, Washington county, while 13 of his fellow prisoners were effecting a sensational jail delivery. The prisoners, all charged with felonies, cut a hole through the steel bars of a corridor on the second floor.

Will Run Dairy Special.

Humboldt.—For the improvement and development of the dairy industry in its territory, the Mobile & Ohio railroad will operate a special dairy instruction car, carrying a model farm dairy, with complete exhibits and charts, and a corps of expert dairymen to give lectures and demonstrations on improved dairy-farming methods.

Train Kills Boy.

Knoxville.—Clifford Moore, aged 18, met instant death, and his brother, Shafter Moore, aged 13, was fatally hurt when an inbound Midland train on the Southern railway struck a wagon in which they were riding.

Farmers Hold Rally.

Humboldt.—A farmers' union rally for Crockett county was held at Cross Roads, on Saturday, Aug. 30. Hon. T. J. Brooks and State President L. M. Rhodes made addresses.

Cotton Foliage Dies Earlier.

Somerville.—W. F. Feathers, the largest individual cotton planter of the county, brought to Somerville the first bale of cotton of the new crop four days earlier than the first bale of last year, which was also brought in by Mr. Feathers.

Seventh Day Adventists Meet.

Jackson.—The annual conference of the Tennessee River Association of Seventh Day Adventists is in session in Jackson.

Railroad Offers Reward.

Nashville.—The receivers of the Tennessee Central Railroad have offered a reward of $250 for the party or parties who shot brakeman C. B. Hayes in Putnam county, July 17. Hayes was hit in the left leg above the knee.

Breaking ground with a big plow or working a gang of heavy discs is hard work and a mare well along in gestation should never be used for this purpose.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 7

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

LESSON TEXT—Ex. 20:1-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind."—Luke 10:27.

The decalogue divides itself into two parts; the first has to do with man and his relations to God, the second deals with man and his relations with men. We consider today the first part. From Deut. 5:22, 23 we learn that the words of these eternal principles were spoken to the whole assembly from the midst of the burning mountain and that they stand apart from the Mosaic law. It was God himself who spoke (v. 1) to this redeemed people (v. 3). Afterwards he wrote them with his own finger on tablet of stone, Deut. 5:22. This law was done away with in Christ (Col. 2:14, 15, 17; 2 Cor. 3:7, 11) but nevertheless each one of these commands, excepting the fourth is reiterated in the New Testament, emphasizing the eternal fixedness of their principles. The principle of a day of rest one day in seven has not, however, been set aside, as we shall see hereafter. The purpose of the law is to bring to men the knowledge of sin and thereby to lead them to Christ, Rom. 6:20, 7:7, 13; Gal. 3:10, 24. John the beloved, tells us "that the commandments are not grievous." Men who understand the spirit of the decalogue know that every commandment tends to make better citizens, better parents, better children, in fact to enable one to live satisfactorily with himself and his neighbors and his God.

Pinnacles of Thought.

I. The First Commandment, vv. 1-3. Instinctively one thinks of two other pinnacles of religious thought, "In the beginning God," Gen. 1:1, and the first two words of the disciples' prayer, "Our Father," Matt. 6:9. Eternity alone can furnish us a measurement sufficiently great to enable us fully to comprehend the fullness of this thought. God the creator, law giver, father. In the beginning, at this mountain and in his son, teaching us of his character.

Up to this time everything had been done for the Israelites. Hereafter they must keep the law in order to obtain life, Rom. 10:5; Gal. 3:12. In this Gospel dispensation we obtain life as an enabling agent whereby to perform or to keep the law, Eph. 2:1, 8-10. The Christian's higher law is Christ himself, inasmuch as the righteousness of the law is fulfilled in the Christian who walks after the spirit, Rom. 8:4. The foundation of all of this is to "have no other gods before (or beside) me," Matt. 4:10.

II. The Second Commandment, vv. 4-6. This is negative in that we shall not attempt any visible representation or likeness of God, and positive in that we shall not bow down in worship nor serve any such likeness. The wisdom of this is only too evident when we carefully study the degeneracy of all forms of heathen religions. The creation of man's hands is worshiped in lieu of the creature supposed to be represented. God did sanction images, Ex. 37:7, 17-20; Kings 7:25. The service of art in the matter of religion is freely acknowledged but nevertheless it is attended by grave danger as is evidenced by Roman Catholic observance in many parts of the world. True worship must be in spirit the God who is spirit, John 4:24; Phil. 3:3 R. V. He must be supreme in our hearts and our affections. The perpetuity of either blessing or curse for the observance or violation of this edict may at first seem to be rather harsh. Yet we must consider that posterity is the continuation of one's self. We do what our fathers did, Heb. 7:9, 10. God has however made a merciful provision whereby we may turn the misery of sin into a blessing, Ex. 18:2, 19, 20 and Rom. 8:28.

Must Be Sincere.

III. The Third Commandment, v. 7. Here is demanded absolute sincerity by all in the use of the divine name and thus forbids all forms of blasphemy. This covers much more than ordinary vulgar profanity. The flippancy and sacrilegious use of divine terms and phrases; the use, whether in prayer or praise of divine names and expressions which are not a part of our life experience is a form of blasphemy. Vain, empty, false usage of God's name is blasphemous. A proper reverence towards God is fundamental to any true love for God.

IV. The Fourth Commandment, vv. 8-11. Attention has been called to the fact that nowhere does it say the seventh day of the week, though that is what the Israelites observed. This is the Sabbath of Jehovah. While this was specially designated for the Jew, (Deut. 5:1, 12, 15), and not literally binding upon the Christian (Col. 2:16, 17), yet it has underneath it a great, wise and beneficent principle, man's need for rest one day in seven. Physically and nervously he needs rest and quiet; spiritually he needs the rest and refreshment thus provided. It was a merciful provision for man, not that man was made for the Sabbath. Read carefully Matt. 12:8, 12; Mark 2:24-27; Luke 13:15, 16; see also John 5:16, 17 R. V. Though primarily given to the Jew and still unknown in heathenism, yet it was God's gift of grace for all mankind, Mark 2:27. The intelligent, obedient Christian will not worship the seventh day but will keep the resurrection day, the first day of the week, Rom. 7:4; John 20:1, 19, 26; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2; Rev. 1:20. The Christian will not keep the legalistic Sabbath as a matter of "observing days, and months, and times, and years," but will observe the Lord's day as a God given privilege, honoring the father, exalting the son, a pathological, physiological, spiritual privilege and blessing of his grace.

Temperance

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

LIQUOR SELLER IS GREEDY

Industry Is Not Only Non-Productive of Good, but Produces Dangerous
Class of Non-Producers.

The liquor seller knows full well that were it not for the nickels and dimes of the workmen—which aggregate in a year many more dollars than the spenders are apt to think—many a saloonkeeper might shut up shop, many a groggery be turned into a grocery. It is the hard-earned money of the day laborer, the mechanic and the clerk which, pouring steadily into the till of the liquor seller, makes whiskey trusts and beer syndicates possible.

And what does the liquor dealer give in exchange for the workman's earnings of which, with other merchants, he greedily claims a share? Food, clothing, shelter, happiness, improvement? No. He gives in exchange that which robs him of all these. He gives his customer that which makes him poor indeed, in that it reduces the capacity of hand and brain (as employers are finding out to their cost) and produces a mental and moral degeneracy which renders "labor" less competent to protect itself against the autocracy of "capital."

We claim that no industry has a right to exist which does not contribute in some measure to the general welfare and prosperity of the nation at large. As in a perfect physical organism every organ and every atom contribute to the health and happiness of the body as a whole, so true economic science would declare that every human being should be not only a consumer, but in some degree, at least, a producer, a contributor to the well being of society as a whole.

Now the liquor industry is not only non-productive of good, but it is an actual and an active producer of an enormous and dangerous class of non-producers. The saloon, the gambling den, the brothel, the jail, the poorhouse, the insane asylum, all furnish their quota to the social discord, all add to the sum of human misery, and all are to more or less extent the products of the liquor traffic. And still "the trade" bids unflinchingly for its share of the earnings of labor!

BEST WAY IS TO PROHIBIT

People Never Go Right Until They Have Tried All the Ways of Going Wrong, Says Spencer.

Herbert Spencer once said, "People never go right until they have tried all the ways of going wrong." I think this truism is more perceptibly shown in the various methods men have tried in dealing with the liquor problem than in any other way. They have tried the unrestricted sale, and the regulated sale. They have tried low license, and high license. They have tried the segregation of the sale to restricted areas. They have tried the dispensary. They have tried everything in the hope of making the saloon acceptable to the better class of people. And now, they are trying to reform it!

We of the southland, along with thousands of the best people north and west and east, decided long ago that the best method of dealing with the liquor traffic is to prohibit it, just as we believe that the best method of dealing with theft and arson and murder is to prohibit these evils.—Silena M. Holman, president Tennessee W. C. T. U.

WILL BE A NOTABLE MEETING

Ninth Triennial Convention of World's
W. C. T. U. to Be Held in Brooklyn in October.

A notable meeting will be that of the ninth triennial convention of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the city of Brooklyn, New York, October 25-28, inclusive. The World's W. C. T. U. was organized by Frances E. Willard in 1853. Mrs. Margaret Bright Lucas (sister of John Bright, the famous British statesman) was its first president. Then Miss Willard became its leader, afterwards Lady Henry Somerset, and the present president is the countess of Carlisle. Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., president of the United States W. C. T. U., is vice-president. Conventions have been held in Boston (two), Chicago, London, Toronto, Geneva, Edinburgh, Glasgow. The World's W. C. T. U. has sent out 22 round-the-world missionaries, who have carried the gospel of Christian temperance into fifty different countries. These countries have national organizations and most of them will send delegates to the Brooklyn convention.

Unfit Physicians.

Dr. F. A. MacNicol, vice-president of the American Medical association, says in his address, delivered before that body at Atlantic City: "A call was recently made for young physicians to enter the United States army. Eighty per cent of those examined were rejected as physically unfit." He then asks this thought-provoking question: "When four-fifths of the most representative men in America are pronounced unfit for war, what shall we say to their fitness to father the next generation?"

Carnegie Gets Peace Cross.

The Hague, Netherlands.—The grand cross of the Order of Orange-Nassau was conferred on Andrew Carnegie by Queen Wilhelmina of The Netherlands in commemoration of the inauguration of the palace of peace.

Big Diamond Theft.

Chicago.—Two sample cases containing uncut diamonds valued at $25,000 were stolen from the jewelry establishment of C. D. Pascock, on one of the busiest corners of State street.

AN IMMENSE NEW INDUSTRIAL PLANT FOR CHICAGO

When completed, the new plant of the Calumet Baking Powder Company, now under course of construction, at South 41st avenue and Fillmore street, will prove a fitting monument to the ability, honesty and progressiveness which have rendered possible the tremendous growth of one of Chicago's most prominent industrial institutions.

This immense plant, the estimated cost of which is $250,000, is a strictly modern five-story and basement, fire proof, re-enforced concrete building. Size, 260x100 feet. One of the novel and interesting features of this, the largest and most efficiently equipped Baking Powder plant in existence, will be a cantilever shipping platform projecting over to a switch track on a level with the second floor.

Automatic machinery, modern appliances and passenger and freight elevators of the latest type will be installed and employed in manufacturing and handling the company's product.

Plans which make possible a maximum amount of glass area and the highest degree of sanitation have been carefully and scientifically prepared. Spacious and splendidly appointed rest rooms are provided for employees.

One entire floor will be devoted to laboratory and research equipment. The installation of a modern bakery for experiment purposes insures the maintenance of the high standard of excellence for which Calumet Baking Powder is famed.

The Calumet Baking Powder Company was organized a quarter of a century ago by Mr. Wm. M. Wright. The company first began the manufacture of baking powder in a comparatively small way, with limited capital. Modern methods, combined with high grade materials and an unwavering determination to produce an article of superior quality have created a demand which necessitated the erection of the new Calumet plant—have made the Calumet Company a substantial factor in the industrial life of Chicago, and won for it a patronage which is a benefit and a credit to the city.—Adv.

LIGHT BREAKS IN Thoughtful Farmer Learns About Coffee.

Many people exist in a more or less hazy condition and often takes years before they realize that tea and coffee are often the cause of the cloudiness, and that there is a simple way to let the light break in.

A worthy farmer had such an experience and tells about it, in a letter. He says:

"For about forty years, I have had indigestion and stomach trouble in various forms. During the last 25 years I would not more than get over one spell of bilious colic until another would be upon me.

"The best doctors I could get and all the medicines I could buy, only gave me temporary relief.

"Change of climate was tried without results. I could not sleep nights, had rheumatism and my heart would palpitate at times so that it seemed it would jump out of my body.

"I came to the conclusion that there was no relief for me and that I was about wound up, when I saw a Postum advertisement. I had always been a coffee drinker, and got an idea from the ad. that maybe coffee was the cause of my trouble.

"I began to use Postum instead of coffee and in less than three weeks I felt like a new man. The rheumatism left me, and I have never had a spell of bilious colic since.

"My appetite is good, my digestion never was better and I can do more work than before for 40 years.

"I haven't tasted coffee since I began with Postum. My wife makes it according to directions and I relish it as well as I ever did coffee, and I was certainly a slave to coffee."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Write for copy of the little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. Instant Postum is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with the addition of cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly.

"There's a reason" for Postum.

DADDY HAD HAD FULL MEAL

Wall of Small Boy Awakened "Sleepy" Man to Realization of What He Made Away With.

One night last week papa got home late. There had been so many things to attend to at the office—and after that a customer from out of town had arrived, and—well, papa got home awfully late. He hated to disturb the family, so he camped in the dining room. And in the morning, being thirsty, he arose, drank water, and retired under the table again.

Then came his little son, the earliest to arise. Little son viewed the situation in the dining room, then lifted up his voice and wept.

"What's the matter?" groaned papa.

"You've gone and drank up all the water in that glass aquarium you gave me for Christmas."

"Well, never mind that. You can put some fresh water in it, and it'll be all the better."

"Yes, but who's goin' to put fresh goldfish and pollywogs and mud turtles in it?"

Then papa sat up and took notice.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
